

Contents

	Page
Preface .....	iii
Explanatory notes .....	ix
Executive summary .....	1
Introduction .....	9
 I. The case for focusing on inequality .....	 13
Linkages between poverty eradication and inequality .....	14
Inequality and the economic dimension of poverty .....	14
Inequality and the socio-political dimensions of poverty .	16
Structural reform, the public sector and inequality .....	19
Universal access to education, health care and social protection .....	 21
Patterns of intervention .....	23
Conclusion .....	26
 II. A spotlight on inequality: the informal economy .....	 29
A brief overview of the informal economy .....	30
The attraction of the informal economy .....	34
Reasons for the growth of the informal economy .....	36
Linkages between the formal and informal economies .....	38
Conclusion .....	41
 III. Trends and patterns of inequality .....	 43
Economic aspects of inequality .....	44
Income inequality between countries .....	44
Income inequality within countries .....	47
Poverty .....	50
Unemployment .....	55
Non-economic aspects of inequality .....	58
Health .....	59
Life expectancy .....	59
Maternal and child health .....	62
HIV/AIDS and other diseases .....	68
Hunger and malnutrition .....	71
Education .....	72
Conclusion .....	78
 IV. Inequalities and social integration .....	 81
Intergenerational dimensions of inequality .....	82

	Page
Consumption, inequality and social integration .....	84
Violence and inequality .....	88
Violent crime .....	90
Armed conflict .....	91
Youth demographics .....	94
Rape and child soldiers.....	96
Domestic violence and slavery.....	97
Fostering democracy and social integration .....	99
Conclusion .....	102
V. The changing context of development and inequality .....	105
Globalization: asymmetries and the loss of policy space.....	105
The impact of liberalization and stabilization policies on inequality.....	108
Financial liberalization .....	110
Trade liberalization.....	111
Financing the social agenda .....	112
Official development assistance .....	114
Innovative sources of financing.....	116
Migrant remittances .....	117
Domestic financing .....	120
The peace dividend .....	124
The role of the State and civil society.....	125
Conclusion .....	128
VI. The way forward: policies to reduce inequality.....	131
Redressing global asymmetries .....	132
Intensifying integrated strategies and policies for poverty eradication .....	133
Guaranteeing employment opportunities for all.....	134
Fostering social integration and cohesion .....	136
Annex The ten commitments of the World Summit for Social Development.....	141
Bibliography .....	143
Figures
I.1. Policy framework: the three main pillars of social development centred on equity and equality.....	13
I.2. Relationship between life expectancy at birth and the level of public and private health spending, 2002.....	25
III.1. Evolution of income inequality among countries .....	45

	Page
III.2. Per capita gross domestic product in the poorest and richest countries, 1960-1962 and 2000-2002.....	45
III.3. Inequalities in life expectancy between major world regions: deviations of regional life expectancy at birth from that of Australia/New Zealand, (1990-1995 and 2000-2005) .....	60
III.4. Distribution of all countries according to how far their life expectancy falls below that of Japan, 1990 and 2000 .....	61
V.1. Aid from all Development Assistance Committee (DAC) donors as a percentage of gross domestic product: the long-term trend to 2004 .....	114
V.2. Aid from Development Assistance Committee (DAC) donors as a proportion of gross domestic product .....	115
V.3. Social sector spending among country groupings classified by income.....	120
V.4. Defence and social sector spending in countries with the highest defence expenditures .....	122
V.5. Defence and social spending in countries with the highest social sector expenditures .....	123

Tables

II.1. Size and growth of the informal sector in selected countries, by sex.....	31
III.1. Regional per capita income as a share of high-income OECD countries' average per capita income .....	46
III.2. Distribution of countries according to trends in Gini coefficients for income distribution between the 1950s and the 1990s .....	48
III.3. Poverty rates for the world, major regions, and China and India.....	52
III.4. Unemployment rates, labour force growth rates and GDP growth rates for the world and major regions .....	56
III.5. Levels of under-five mortality for selected countries and between-country inequality indices.....	63
III.6. Under-five mortality for countries with the highest and lowest rates, 1995, 2000 and 2002.....	64
III.7. Immunization coverage among children aged 12-23 months, by country and selected background characteristics .....	66
III.8. Differentials within and between selected countries in access to skilled medical care at delivery for children born three years before the survey .....	67
III.9. Adults and children affected by HIV/AIDS: the world and major regions, 2004 .....	68
III.10. Women living with HIV: the world and major regions, 2004 ...	69

	Page
III.11. Percentages of total, urban and rural household populations with no education, by sex.....	74
III.12. Inequalities in primary school enrolment: the world and major regions, 1998 and 2001.....	75
III.13. Inequalities in secondary school enrolment: the world and major regions, 1998 and 2001.....	77