

Embargoed: not for news wire transmission, posting on websites, or any other media use until August 21, 2002 at 8:00 pm Johannesburg time (1:00 pm Washington time).

The World Bank

News Release No. 2003/37/S
(Graphs)

Contact: In Johannesburg
Sarah Crowe (mobile): 083 402 9812
scrowe@worldbank.org
Sergio Jellinek (mobile): 082 858 8578
sjellinek@worldbank.org
World Bank office in Pretoria: 012 431 3100

WORLD DEVELOPMENT REPORT 2003 -Comparative graphs: Africa and the world-

1. Africa: Largest share of people on fragile lands

2. Per Capita Carbon Dioxide Emmissions in 1998

3. Percentage of Countries with Exploitable Water Resources

4. Average Urban Growth Rates (1975-2000)

5. Number of deaths due to civil conflicts from 1944-1996 (per 100,000 people)

6. CO2 Emmissions

7. Percentage of Countries with Exploitable Water Resources

Journalists can access the complete text of the World Development Report 2003 before the expiration of the embargo through the World Bank Online Media Briefing Center at <http://media.worldbank.org/secure/>

Accredited journalists who do not already have a password, may request one by completing the registration form at: <http://media.worldbank.org/>

The report and related materials will be available to the public on the World Wide Web immediately after the embargo expires at: <http://www.worldbank.org/wdr>

Media outlets are encouraged to include this Web address in their coverage of the report.