

Draft for comment but not for quotation or circulation
May 11, 2004

World Development Report 2005
A Better Investment Climate—For Everyone

Part IV How the International Community Can Help

Chapter 10 How the international community can help

This draft has been prepared by a core team led by Warrick Smith and comprising Mary Hallward-Driemeier, Gaiv Tata, George Clarke, Raj Desai, Timothy Irwin, Richard Messick, Stefano Scarpetta and Ekaterina Vostroknutova. Leora Klapper acted as the team's finance expert. The team was assisted by Yanni Chen, Alexandru Cojocaru, Zenaida Hernandez, Tewodaj Mengistu, Claudio Montenegro and David Stewart. Colleagues across the Bank Group helped the team in many ways.

The work was initiated under the direction of Nicholas Stern and carried out under the direction of François Bourguignon. The published version will be available in September 2004.

World Development Report 2005
A Better Investment Climate—For Everyone

Table of Contents

Chapter 10 How the international community can help

Removing distortions that harm investment climates in developing countries
Providing development assistance
Tackling the knowledge agenda

List of Figures

- 10.1 development finance
- 10.2 Removing trade distortions in high-income countries can deliver annual gains for developing countries almost twice development assistance
- 10.3 Development assistance for the investment climate: Commitments during 1997-2001

List of Boxes

- 10.1 Multidonor facilities: improving the quality of technical advice
- 10.2 Knowing when to stop: UNDP's microfinance activities in Bangladesh
- 10.3 Multidonor facilities: improving the quality of technical advice
- 10.4 Direct support to firms and transactions—forms and measurement issues

List of Table

- 10.1 Commitments for direct support to firms: 1997-2001